Sandburg P-TA Backs Plan To Select Board Candidates

The Carl Sandburg P-TA is sponsoring a new method of selecting candidates for the high school board—the caucus system.

Backers of the idea contend the district will get better candidates thru slating than if they are left to file independently.

A steering committee appointed to study the caucus plan has recommended its adoption.

To this end a meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Feb. 11 at the high school, 133rd st. and LaGrange rd. Mrs. J. N. Yurtis, chairman of the steering committee, is to preside. It is planned to get the caucus machinery set up at this meeting.

According to backers of the plan invitations have been sent out "to all non-political community organizations in the school district" with a membership of more than 25, to choose two delegates and an alternate to participate in the caucus.

At the Feb. 11 meeting a caucus chairman is to be chosen, rules of procedure adopted and executive and candidates committees set up.

It is said that the caucus plan for school elections has been adopted in 18 Chicago suburbs. Speakers from some of these communities are scheduled to address the meeting Feb. 11.

All caucus meetings will be open to the public, proponents of the plan say, and add that thru its by-laws precautions will be taken to prevent domination of the caucus by any group.

"The function of the caucus will be to seek candidates best qualified to serve on the school board of District 230", a spokesman said, "and to evaluate their qualifications and those candidates seeking caucus endorsement or who are suggested by interested people. The final slate will be decided by the vote of the delegates—The caucus will support its candidates in an ethical manner in the election campaign and will in no way discredit non-caucus candidates."

School district 230—the Carl Sandburg high school district—is made up of all of Palos and Orland townships, and that portion of Bremen township bounded by Harlem avenue on the west, Ridgeland avenue to the east, 151st street on the north and 167th street on the south.

School board elections will be held April 13 this year. One need not be registered to vote in such. Qualifications for a

Water System Ready for Use

With a false ceiling in place and a circulating oil heater in operation it was expected that the new water system in Orland Park would be operating automatically this weekend.

It has been in use but because of insufficient heat in the base of the tank pedestal that serves as a pumping station, the switches have been operated manually.

This condition has been remedied by installation of a false ceiling. Previously too much of the heat disappeared in the upper reaches of the support column. With the false ceiling in place the lower portion of the room is now warm enough for all the machinery to function normally.

The ceiling is made of plywood laid on angle irons.

First date for filling nominating petitions for school board candidates is Feb. 27; last day for filing is March 23.

Petitions are available at the administration office at the high school.

More information concerning the plan may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Chester Williams, P-TA president, at Fieldbrook 9-3351.

Mr. Ground Hog to Make Annual Weather Forecast on Saturday

This Saturday, Feb. 2, is Ground Hog day, a red letter event on the calendar of weather prognosticators of the old school.

According to legend the Ground Hog is a canny critter with a gift for long range forecasts. If—so the story goes—he comes out of his den on the morning of Feb. 2 and finds the day bright and sunny so that he can see his shadow he rushes back into his quarters and curls up for another six week's nap, because winter will continue for at least that long.

On the other hand, should the day be cloudy so no shadow is seen, G. Hog yawns a couple of times, stretches and says:

"Good. Winter is over and now I will wake up and make my schedule for spring planting and limber up a bit to get in condition so I can go to work."

Of course, if Mr. Hog is as smart weather-wise as legend has it, he will be bundled up when he makes his entry Saturday, cloudy or fine, because it is likely that winter will still be here and it has been rather chilly this week. Goggles and earmuffs probably will not still be in demand by the week end and the weatherman says there is a lot of arctic air on the loose.

And the official weather bureau pooh-poohs the idea that a ground hog can forecast the weather, particularly on a long range basis, but then there are those who quote the adage concerning the tossing of rocks or other hard objects by persons who reside in houses with thermopane walls. The weather bureau, they point out, misses in its forecasts too, short range as well as long range.

So come on in Ground Hog and say what the weather is to be.

It will begin the first week of February and will be held every week until the end of May in the homes of the following people: Mrs. Dorothy Thompson at 119th and 85th ave. on Wednesdays from 4 to 5 o'clock; at Mrs. John Alfievic at 12635 S. 76th ave., immediately after school on Thursdays; and at Mrs. Lolita Pnasek at 8837 W. 131st Pl. on Friday from 4:00 to 5:00.

Former Operator Of Virginia Court Dies Suddenly

Charles Preston, who operated the Virginia Motor court, 159th and Kean ave., for seven years, died suddenly Thursday morning Jan. 24 in his home in Chicago. Mr. Preston and family moved to Chicago a year ago where he operated the Airport motel at 78th and Cicero.

Surviving are his wife, Helen, three daughters, Jane Schoenwald, Frances Welton and Alice; four grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Nellie Monahan, three brothers, Ernest, Perry and Wilbur.

Funeral services were held Saturday in a chapel in Chicago with burial in Clarendon Hills cemetery.

The "kick-off" of the Orland Park local Boy Scout fund drive is set for Saturday, Feb. 2. The drive to raise money to support Boy Scouting in the area will be directed this year by Ralph Town and Roy Benson.

Orland Park is one of the 35 communities comprising Pokagon Trail's council, which serves scouting in the south suburban Cook county area and in nearby Indiana communities. According to co-chairmen Town and Benson, the goal this year will be $400. This sum will be used for training of new leaders, organization of new Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts, maintenance of the council's summer camp, Camp Frank S. Betz in Berrien Springs, Mich., and five week-end campsites, awards, field service, and general administration of the Scouting program.

In the past several years, the scouting movement has grown by leaps and bounds in the suburban areas, and scout leaders have been hard-pressed to keep abreast of the demand for the program.

The total council budget for 1957 is $60,000 and is the minimum amount necessary to insure scouting to those boys who want to take part in a program of outdoor activities for Boy Scouts, high adventure for Explorers, and home centered handicraft, games, and make believe for Cub Scouts.

At the present time, Orland Park is served by troop 251, sponsored by the American Legion post 526, and pack 218, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary post 526. They are under the leadership of Scoutmaster Joseph Kaiser, 13720 Elm st., and Cubmaster Roy Benson, 14355 Raney Lane.

Town and Benson will be assisted in the house to house solicitation by Raymond Myrick, George Flondor, Kenneth Halborson, John Hutchinson, Roy Walker, Clark Hodges, Herbert Sterling, Phillip Ebeling, and Clarence Kelsey. These men urge the people of the community to give generously to Orland Park's local scout fund drive.

Garden Club to Sponsor Flower Design Show

A flower arrangement symposium in Chicago! For years it has been necessary to travel to far distant cities to attend such an event. On Thursday, Feb. 7, 1957 at the Eighth Street theatre 741 S. Wabash ave., Chicago, the Garden Club of Illinois, Inc., will present four outstanding, nationally renowned, floral designers.

The curtain will go up on the first artist at 9:30 a.m., Ted Williams of San Antonio, Tex. He will demonstrate "Modern, Exotic and Contemporary Design". Mr. Williams has appeared before professional groups in nearly every state in our country as well as several cities in Mexico. "Japanese Arrangements" with all the beauty and simplicity this Oriental art expresses, will be Alex Alexander's project at the 11 o'clock session. A native of the deep south, he came to Purdue university for his formal floricultural education and later worked with one of Chicago's famous florists, Marc Leeds. Mr. Alexander has taken several trips to Japan in the interests of his flair for artistry with flow.

T. Merle Paul, state director of the U S savings bonds division, announced that sales of E and H bonds in the state of Illinois totaled $458,094,676, for the year 1956, representing 89.9% of the annual quota. Sues to Get Store Taxed at Park Forest

(CNS) Park Forest taxpayer has filed suit on behalf of the village seeking a writ of mandamus commanding County Assessor Frank Keenan to place the Marshall Field & Company department store, in the village, on the tax rolls.

Attorney Wallace Wyatt filed the suit Friday in Superior court on behalf of Bernard G. Cunningham, a resident of Park Forest.

The store opened for business March 28, 1955 and the store building had a fair cash value of $1 million on April 1 of that year, the suit states.

The village last June 29 asked Keenan to assess the structure for taxes for the year 1955 but he refused, according to the suit.

Cunningham called this to the attention of the Board of Appeals of Cook county September 10, but the board also declined to act, the suit sets forth.

The village also has appealed to Richard Lyons, state director of revenue, without any result, the suit said.

SCRAP PAPER DRIVE

This evening, Jan. 31 is the regular monthly pickup of scrap iron and paper conducted by the Mokena Lions club in Mokena. Residents are asked to have the paper tied in bundles and placed at the curb at 7 o'clock when the drive starts.

Makes Last Mail Delivery

Sam Brunner Retires After 35 Years in Rural Mail Service

During the 35½ years Sam Brunner has been delivering mail on his rural route in Tinley Park, there was only one time when the mail did not go through. That was one cold winter day, after a heavy snowfall, before snow plows were in general use. He had to abandon his car and hike the 1½ mile trek back to town in zero weather.

Sam is retiring as mail carrier on Jan. 31, at the age of 55.

A resident of Tinley for 50 years, he moved from Cleveland Ohio with his family when five years old, to a farm at 162nd and 80th ave.

Sam credits his wife, the former Margaret Suhs, of Tinley, for his remarkable record in delivering the rural mail. Not once in all these years did she fail to arise at 5:30 a.m. and fortify him with a good breakfast before he started on his route.

When they married in 1921, Tinley Park was a small farming community of 300 population. The mail carrier delivered to 55 rural homes within an area of 24 miles. In 1935 the route was enlarged to a territory of 40 miles and now covers 483 homes. The village now has a population of over 5000.

The Brunner family lived in their home at 17230 Oak Park ave. for 30 years. They plan to move into a new home in Flossmoor in the near future.

Before joining the Tinley Park post office staff at the age of 20, on July 18, 1921, Sam worked and lived on farms in the area.

Chris Andres was postmaster then, followed by Paul Rauhoff. There were three rural mail carriers. One was Ernest E. Rice, who delivered mail to Sam's home when he was a small boy. Mr. Rice retired at 69 and recently died at the age of 92.

There were few paved roads back in the days when the mail carrier first served the rural area. When mud and clay made the roads impassible for an auto mobile, Sam used a horse to transport the mail and in winter, a sled.

His first automobile was a model T Ford, which he recalls with a chuckle, took a lot of coddling to keep in operating condition and many hours of hard work.

Sam attended Kirby grammar school and returned to Cleveland for his high school education.

Harry Dean, postmaster, who presented his loyal employee with an honorary certificate from the United States postmaster, praised Sam as a hard worker and is sure his patrons will agree he always did much more than was required of him. He always had time to do special courtesies. "Many times when he should have been home in bed, he was on the job" said the postmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunner have two children, Sam Jr., of Homewood, and Mrs. Betty Landahl, of Tinley, also one granddaughter, Karen Landahl. Mr. Brunner's sister, Mrs. William Andres also lives in Tinley.

The pleasant, friendly, amiable mail carrier has seen the Tinley Park post office elevated from a 4th class to a 1st class office, which it will assume on July 1, of this year.

Sam, who admits he will miss his job and the people on his route, wishes to say thank you to all of his patrons, who made his job a pleasant one.

A PTA sponsored Skating party will be held in the Orland Park elementary school gym tomorrow night, Feb. 1, at 7:30.

DRIVE SAFER

You'll be safer if you carry "extra passengers" all winter, says the Illinois Division of Traffic Safety. A bucket of sand, a shovel and an ice scraper are good passengers to accompany you on any trip in winter. Did you ever stop to consider how many, many people are killed each year because they failed to take simple precautions. Keep ready for winter driving.

Bremen Takes L-W in League Tilts

Bremen Edges Eagles 59-56

The Bremen Braves won a close basketball game from Carl Sandburg high school at the Sandburg gymnasium Jan. 18, 59-56.

The game was much like the previous meeting of the two teams except that Bremen had the edge this time. In their last clash Bremen was defeated by Sandburg with a score of 61-57.

The first half was very even, the scores being 14-14 for the first period and 23-27 in Bremen's favor at the half. Sandburg forged ahead in the third quarter 47-42. Bremen then rallied in the last period and with seven seconds to go Gary DuBois sank two free throws to put the icing on the cake.

Leading scorers were Darrel Erickson and Meador Hill of Sandburg with fifteen points each. Da'e Hartwig and Richard Tindell scored fourteen points.

The Bremen freshman-sophomore team also won a victory in the preliminary game with a score of 44-34. They are now tied for second place.

Braves Win Varsity Contest 76 to 66 in Hard Fought Battle

BY FRED KIESLAR

Lincoln-Way varsity basketball team dropped two games last week, a ding-dong Southwest Suburban conference tilt to Bremen high, 76 to 66 and a non-conference tilt to Bremen non-conference encounter to Plainfield 49 to 42. The frosh-soph squad split, losing to Bremen, 53 to 38 and winning from Plainfield, 48 to 37.

The Knights started out in the varsity go with Bremen by outscoring the Braves 24 to 20, but in the second period Bremen piled up 19 points while holding Lincoln-Way to 10 so the half ended with the score, Bremen 39, Lincoln-Way 34.

In the third frame Lincoln-Way bounced back, outscoring the Braves by seven points, 22 to 15 to take the lead again 56 to 54. But Bremen jerked the rug in the closing canto, piling up 22 points while the best the Knights could do was to count 10, which was the margin of victory for the Braves, 76 to 66.

Bremen's Tindall hit 23 points to make him high man in the game. Red Wade of Lincoln-Way was second with 18 points.

In the Plainfield game played on the Lincoln-Way court the Wildcats outscored the Knights in every period except the last one and in the last period each team got 16 points. Skill with free throws gave Plainfield the victory, the visitors making 83% of their chances while the Knights converted 67% of their charity attempts. Both teams scored the same number of baskets, 15.

Scoring was well scattered is evidenced by the fact that Wade was high point man for L-W with 13 while Harvey Johnson was high for Plainfield with 12. Wade has scored 257 points so far, for an average of 16.07 points per game.

In the frosh-soph games Bremen scored seven points in the first quarter and 11 in the second for a half-time count of 18 which was matched by Lincoln-Way with nine tallies in each period.

The Lincolns scored 20 points in the last half, 10 in each frame while Bremen rang up 16 in the third period and 14 in the last quarter to make the final count, Bremen 53, Lincoln-Way 38.

Lincoln-Way frosh-soph had better luck with the Plainfields. L-W scored 11 points in the first period, 10 in the second for 21 at the half. This was one point less than scored by Plainfield that had registered nine in the first quarter and 13 in the second for 22. The Lincolns counted 12 in the third to Plainfield's 10 so L-W was in the lead 33 to 32 going into the last quarter in which the home team made 15 points to Plainfield's five, thus making the final score Lincoln-Way, 48; Plainfield, 37.

Mannaioni was high scorer in the Bremen-Lincoln-Way tilt with 18; Ron Sorrell, Lincoln-Way, had 17. Sorrell also had 17 points in the Plainfield game while the latter's high point man was Jack Needham with 15.

Sorrell has scored 166 points to date, an average of 10.31 per game.

The Lincoln-Ways will be hosts to Sandburg tomorrow night, Feb. 1, with the frosh-soph tilt beginning at 6:45 and the varsity game about 8 o'clock.

The Knights and the Sandburgs are tied for second place in the varsity standings, so the game tomorrow night is an important one for both teams.

Boy, 11, Bags Fox In Tinley Park Hunt

Thirty men and a boy were on a fox hunt out of Tinley Park last Sunday and you know who bagged the only fox raised. Right! It was Lonnie Siebrandt, 11 years old, 151st street, Tinley. Lonnie got a good view of the quarry over the sights of his gun, squeezed the trigger and that was 'all for the fox.

Sandburg Basketeers Lose to Rich 78-50; Porters Win, 48-42

Sandburg high school's varsity basketball team had a disastrous week-end. It dropped a Southwest Suburban conference game to Rich on Friday night 78 to 50 and was nosed out by Lockport on Saturday night, 48 to 42.

The win by Rich incidentally was the 38th consecutive league victory for the Park Forest team which is now sure of at least a tie for the conference championship and the probabilities of the Rockets taking the title again free and clear appear quite bright indeed.

The Eagles kept pace with the Rockets for the first half and when intermission time arrived Rich led by one slim point, 31 to 30.

Mark Hill, 6-foot-5-inch junior who scored eight points in the first half, also had picked up four fouls and a fifth personal in the third quarter sent him to the showers before he could add to his score. Sandburg kept close so that when the third quarter ended Rich had only a seven-point edge but in the final period the Rockets went to town with the final scoring 78 to 50.

The Sandburgs went to Lockport on Saturday night for a tilt with the second place Suburban conference entry. With 35 seconds to go in the final period the Eagles were trailing by only two points, 44 to 42. The Porters cut loose with two quick baskets, however, to put the game on ice.

Mark Hill head the scoring in the Lockport game with four field goals and six free throws for 14 points.

Lee Marten was high point man for Sandburg in the Rich encounter with 12.

Sandburg and Lincoln-Way meet tomorrow night. The Sandburg varsity has played 18 games this season with a record of eight wins and 10 losses.

Mokena Whips Elwood Fives in Easy Fashion

Mokena grade school basketball teams dusted off Elwood in easy fashion last week-end, thus enabling the heavyweights to run their victory string to 10 and the lights to resume their winning ways after their first set-back 10 days ago at the hands of Frankfort.

The Meteors, as the heavies are called, won 46 to 7 while the Meteorites finished on top of a 35 to 8 count.

Mokena's coach, Jim Wrath, tried various combinations in the two tilts and made free use of his reserves.

The Meteorites started slowly and at the end of the first period led by three points, 7 to 4. But after that the Mokena Ponies cantered along to make it 15 to 4 at the half and then kept on scoring.

The Mokena heavies, on the other hand, started out with a series of quick hits by Morris and Kruzich and led 15 to 3 at the end of the first quarter and 26 to 3 at the half.

Kruzich with 14 points, Morris with 10 and Yunker with nine showed balanced scoring for Mokena.

Mokena will play Manhattan tomorrow night, at Manhattan.

This is the hot-stove boating season. Boaters who have faced the unfortunate fact of facilities shortages all summer can take steps to remedy the situation during the winter. This is the time to make a determined effort to eliminate those shortages of needed facilities.

Outboard boating clubs throughout the country have, in the past few years, made great strides in cutting the red tape that stands between them and improved launching, docking and mooring facilities. In some cases, these clubs have taken the bull by the horns, bought a waterfront site and erected their own ramp and cleared a parking area for trailers. However, in many other instances, these boaters have made their needs known to the local government and have pressed on to a final realization of a public small boat facility. It takes facts and figures to impress budget-conscious city fathers and the necessary facts and figures, even construction plans are available through the offices of the Outboard Boating Club of America, 307 North Michigan Boulevard, Chicago.

Well, the response from your folks after I mentioned our sports question and answer department was more than satisfactory. You'll remember I asked you to send in sports questions and I'd answer them in this column. I also said I'd send a sports gift to the persons sending in the questions with the most popular appeal. Here's the two that I think best of all I received.

Q. What was Babe Ruth's lifetime World Series batting average. A. T.

A. Ruth's lifetime World Series batting average was .326. His career extended from 1915 to 1932 with a low of .118 and a high of .625.

Q. My friend says Man O' War never won a Kentucky Derby - I say he's wrong. Can you settle this for us? M. N.

A. Your friend is right. Man O' War never won a Kentucky Derby for the simple reason he was never entered in one.

Those two questions, in my opinion, were the most interesting of all I received and I'm sending out two sports gifts to the writers. Send your question to me at SPORTS TALK, 218 East Ontario Street, Chicago, Illinois. Send your question today—YOU might be a winner of a sports gift you'll treasure! Short on Autos

Men looking for an opportunity to go into a business in which they should have an opportunity to get rich are advised to look into the possibility of opening an automobile agency in Cook county or maybe a good livery stable.

According to the assessor's books few persons have cars in either the city of Chicago or in Cook county outside of the city. There appears to be a dearth of trucks too, if the assessment rolls are to be believed.

The rolls show there are only 17,447 passenger cars owned in Chicago, while the number of cars in Cook county, outside Chicago is 81,446. The number of trucks assessed in Chicago is 71,687 but out in the county towns there seems to be a marked shortage of such vehicles—only 13,933.

Orland township has quite a few motor vehicles, 292 passenger cars assessed and 173 trucks but in neighboring Palos it would appear that the people there stay home or walk back and fourth to Chicago as there are but 47 cars on the assessment roll and 157 trucks. The assessment roll in Worth shows 251 cars and 1,247 trucks but Bremen is a fertile spot for prospective sales, it was pointed out, as there are but 38 assessed passenger autos in that township and 31 trucks.

Totals on the assessment rolls are a bit lower than these furnished by the secretary of state's office showing registrations. The number of passenger cars registered in the city of Chicago for instance is given as 896,999 or 98 per cent more than are assessed.

On the other hand 67 per cent of the 106,478 trucks registered in Chicago are assessed. In Cook county outside of Chicago, 419,424 passenger cars are registered but only 19 per cent are assessed. Thirty per cent of the 46,714 trucks registered in the county are assessed.

In Will county 43,978 of the 52,403 registered cars or 83 per cent, are assessed and 5,576 of the 8,939 trucks registered, or 62 per cent, are listed on the assessment rolls.

In DuPage and Kane counties 75 per cent of the registered passenger cars are assessed, but only 58 per cent in Lake county. DuPage is low on trucks, 43 per cent of the number registered being assessed. The percentage of assessed trucks in Kane county is 60 and in Lake county 50.

It was estimated that Cook county loses a million and a half dollars a year thru lax assessment and collection of personal property taxes on automobile, according to the Civic federation.

There is nothing on the assessment rolls which shows that Cook county and Chicago resident have turned back to the horse instead of the automobile for transportation.

Revenooers Serve Notice of Early Bite on Taxpayer

Farmers whose income is at least two thirds from farming my file an estimate of their tax by Jan. 15 and a final return by April 15, or they can omit the estimate and file the final return and pay the tax in full by Feb. 15. This was the reminder issued Friday by H. Alan Long, district director of internal revenue.

Other taxpayers required to file an estimate by Jan. 15 this year may omit it if they file a final return by Jan. 31, Long said.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

I remember about seven years ago when the new shopping center on Oak Park ave started, and how new homes were going up, people moving in as soon as they were built, the same thing is still going on. New subdivisions going up, and more shopping centers are in the plans. In the last two or three years we have set up land sites for industry, new schools, new church, and a new municipal building for our village board, fire department and police department. We have a good chamber of commerce and an efficient leader. Our police and fire department are of the most up to date for any town of our size. Our community should be proud and work with them for their fine work. We should not let politics interfere with our progress in Tinley Park, as you know we have members of both parties working for our village and doing a fine job. We must all work as a team for the interest of our community, and not seek to work just to be on the payroll because there is not big salaries to be made. Our water department in Tinley Park is at its peak, and in the best financial condition ever.

And you take our home town paper, The Tinley Park Times, they are always ready to serve you and give you all the news and even open a new office in Tinley Park to give you better service. With out the news and ads from our merchants there would be no newspaper. So let's get behind our paper, they pay for a business license and give donations.

TINLEY GIRL SCOUT

In spite of inclement weather, the Neighborhood meeting of adult Girl Scouts held Jan. 22 was well attended. Mrs. Elmer Knudsen, chairman presented various subjects for discussion, one of which was the organizing of a new intermediate troop. Investiture was held for two members, Mesdames Lowell and Farquhar and James McNamara. Five year pins were awarded to the Mesdames Sidney Feiwell, Charles McCutchen and Matthew Steinmetz. There are now 10 adult Girl Scouts in Tinley Park who have served five years or more in Scouting, and those who were awarded their pins previously are as follows: Mesdames Arthur Blue, Irwin Johnson, Harold Herre, Elmer Knudsen, Ervin Funk, Robert Funk, and Paul Nielsen.

COUNCIL MEETING

The Girl Scouts of South Cook county held their annual council meeting Jan. 24 in the Sandburg school in Harvey.

Representing the Tinley Park neighborhood were Mrs. Chas. Knutsen, chairman, Mrs. Chas. H. McCutchen, delegate, Raymond Anderson and Mrs. Irwin Johnson.

With all meetings where important issues are involved, the introduction of a little levity is appreciated, and the reports on the senior Round-up and little Round-Up by those who attended supplied the required humor.

Visual aids for the use of the council were purchased with the proceeds from the 1956 calendar sale. Again this year, the Girl Scouts of South Cook county were presented a Chevrolet station wagon by Nielsen Chevrolet of Harvey.

Following the various reports, amendments to and changes in the articles and by-laws were voted upon. Mrs. Raymond Anderson was elected to the membership nominating committee.

After the election, the new officers and Neighborhood chairmen were installed, followed by a social period. As of Dec. 31, 1956, Tinley Park had 158 Brownies, 94 Intermediates and 15 Seniors, a total of 267 registered Scouts in 14 troops with 85 adults in various capacities.

Intermediate Girl Scout troop 334, Tinley Park, has had the privilege of working with Paul Leland, local photographer for the past two Scout meetings. Many of the Scouts were interested in photography and wished to earn this particular badge.

In seeking a consultant in this field, they contacted Mr. Leland, who was most cooperative. The first meeting covered the basic knowledge of the camera parts and their workability. The second half of the badge requirements were on developing and enlarging.

The girls took pictures with their own cameras and assisted Mr. Leland in developing the film at their meeting Monday. A selection of good negatives and an enlargement were made.

The troop now has an enthusiastic "shutter-bug" patrol, and when they go on their next over-night, planned for early spring, some good pictures should be added to the troop photography book.

of regional groups, and to promote a general feeling of unity among the entire 4-H movement.

The members in the older age bracket of 4-H work are usually delegated to this federation, thus giving them added responsibility and preparing them for adult leadership.

During the course of the evening, talks were given by Edwin Gierke, Leslie Kohl and Gene Piepenbrink. Refreshments were provided by Gene Piepenbrink.

The next meeting will be Feb. 22. Leaders for the Rich-Bremen unit are Melvin Hoyer and Her-

RICH-BREMEN 4-H

When the Rich-Bremen 4-H group met Jan. 25 at the Farm Bureau hall with their president Leslie Kohl, they elected a delegate and alternate to the federation meeting which is held the second Tuesday of each month. Those elected were Leslie Kohl and Dale Twietmeyer as alternate.

The purpose of the Federation meeting is to assist the units in program planning, to bring to their attention various meetings want to live.

TREACHEROUS STUFF

Which is easier to hold, asks the Illinois Division of Traffic Safety, an ice cube just out of the refrigerator or one that has begun to melt? Remember this when driving this winter. It's the same way with your tires trying to stop on hard, cold ice and wet, melting ice. Slow down if you want to live.

It is a well-known fact that that textile industry operates in cycles. Various reasons have been given why an industry supplying a basic need, clothing, should experience such widespread changes in operational activity. Briefly, the principal reason appears to be that because of the many manufacturing steps involved in converting the raw material into a finished produce and the fact that the industry, especially in its final stages, the so-called suit-and-cloak business, is in the hands of many independent producers, there are wide changes in inventory. It is interesting to note the stability of the cycle change. Since World War II from one high point in textile production to the next has been 30 months. In the interim the downside has taken less than a year and the remainder of the 2 1/2 year period has been an upturn. In other words the drop from the peak has been sharp followed by a more gradual climb.

Textile Mill Products
Federal Reserve Board Index
The most recent peak came in November 1955 when F.R.B. index of Textile Mill Products

Post-War High	Month
119	May 1948
111	December 1950
113	May 1953
110	November 1955

reached 110. Following this the index reached a low of 100— in July 1956 since which time the index has picked up sharply and in October, the latest available figure, stood at 106. Assuming a continuation of the historical pattern, it would appear the present year will be one of further gradual growth of production carrying into the early part of 1958. Because this is a competitive industry which is continuously being squeezed by increased raw material costs and labor costs, on one hand, and retail prices on the other, the anticipated improved conditions this year should mean better profit margins as well as increased sales.

There is a time to buy and a time to sell textile stocks. Standard & Poor's Weekly Stock Price Index for Textiles and Apparel reached 301 in September, 1955. Since then it has dropped until it was at 216 in November 1956. It strengthened somewhat in December and closed the year at 221.

Among the individual issues, Burlington Industries, M. Lowenstein, J. P. Stevens and United Merchants and Manufacturers look attractive for market appreciation. While the rayon producers face a long term problem of maintaining their position in the industry, these stocks, also appear underpriced on a short term basis.

At current market prices the following leaders in textile manufacturing offer attractive dividend yields. In each case earnings are well above dividend requirements:

Burlington Industries	7.4%
M. Lowenstein	7%
J. J. Stevens	6.8%
United Merchants & Mfg.	6.9%
Celanese Corp.	6.1%

The American Veterinary Medical Association reports that the heavy breeds of poultry seem to be more susceptible to fowl typhoid than are the light breeds. When eight week old birds were infected, 80 to 93 per cent of the heavy breeds got the disease while only 11 to 36 per cent of the light breeds contracted it.

Rainbow Council Appoints New Field Executive

Paul M. Tikalsky reported for duty Jan. 18 as a field executive on the staff of the Rainbow Council, Boy Scouts of America.

He comes to this council from Valley Council with headquarters at Appleton, Wis., where he has served for the past three and one half years.

He is 34 years of age, married and has two children. He attended Fon Du Lac college, the University of Wisconsin, and the National Training school for Scout executive. He is a member of the Catholic church. A veteran of World War II, he served in the Navy Medical corps and was assigned to duty with the Marine corps. THE ORLAND PARK HERALD

Thur. Jan. 31, 1957 Sec. 1 Pg. 9

As a boy, Mr. Tikalsky was a boy scout, and previous to entering the professional scouting service was a Sea Explorer skipper.

His principal assignment will be as district executive of the Louis Joliet district. In addition to this he will be responsible for several functional assignments covering the entire Rainbow Council area, including Catholic church relationships and Boy Scout programming.

His first major assignment, in which he is now actively engaged, is the locating of a home in which to live and to move his family as soon as possible.

The American Veterinary Medical Association says that no rat poison is completely harmless to livestock and pets, and for that reason should be placed where farm animals cannot get at it.

Entries will be judged for originality, composition, color, imagination and neatness. Winners in the suburban schools will receive paintings and drawings by Illinois artists. Their drawings will be hung in the school and left there permanently.

Grade schools in Orland Township may submit entries to be judged in a local contest, sponsored by the Orland Park Woman's club. These entries will be picked up at the schools on Mar. 11.

Questions regarding the local contest may be obtained by calling Mrs. Harry Anderson, Fieldbrook 9-2836.

Mokena Farmer Exports Purebred Holstein to Cuba

Louis Lauffer, Mokena, has exported a registered Holstein cow to Cuba.

This animal, Piebe Fobes Osbornale 3939455, was sold to Edward Gonzales, Santiago, Cuba.

Expanding export markets, particularly in Latin American countries, have become an increasingly important factor in the registered Holstein industry in recent years.

During 1956, a total of 694 head, 518 females and 176 bulls were exported and officially transferred to buyers in 23 different countries.

Frankfort to Vote on Sewer Bonds Feb. 23

A special bond election to provide a sanitary sewer system for Frankfort has been called by the village board of that community for Feb. 23.

The issue is for $75,000 in general obligation bonds and will pay a part of the cost of the program. The remaining costs would be financed thru revenue bonds. Estimate of the total cost of the project is placed at approximately $217,600 by Mulford Engineers of Chicago Heights. This engineering firm has served the village of Frankfort for many years and eight years ago drew plans for a sewer system.

These plans were laid aside at the time because of the cost and the fact that the state was not then putting pressure on the smaller communities to build modern sewer systems.

Since then Frankfort has grown in population and the state sanitary water board is threatening to take action unless steps are taken to halt pollution of Hickory creek.

A letter to this fact was received recently by the village board. Action was stayed by the state when village officials showed they were proceeding with plans to meet state demands.

The plans now completed are a revision of those drawn eight years ago and includes erection of a sewage treatment plant.

According to the engineers the cost of the treatment plant is estimated at $71,000; the remaining amount $146,600 would pay for the sewers.

The cost of the Frankfort system will be substantially less than that of the Mokena, which is estimated at around $400,000. This is because Frankfort will not have to construct any lift station as Mokena must do. The slope of the land is such that Frankfort can carry its sewage to the treatment plant by gravity. The treatment plant is to be located just north of the village on a natural drainage ditch that carries to Hickory creek, about a mile further north.

The sewer system and the treatment plant will be so constructed that it can serve a population of 1,300 which is more than double the present size.

The village board is preparing information and figures which will be distributed to all the residents of the community so they may become familiar with all aspects of the program prior to the bond election.

A mass meeting for a discus-general public and are retired thru taxes collected by the municipality. Revenue bonds are those retired thru payment for services furnished by the municipality.

In the case of Mokena and Frankfort such bonds would be retired thru revenues from the sale of water and the treatment of sewage.

New Lenox also is working on a program to provide that village with water as well as sanitary sewers and a sewage treatment plant. Engineers are conducting a survey there and drafting preliminary plans so that village officials will have an estimate of the cost, preparatory to calling a bond election.

The bond election at Frankfort will be held on a Saturday, Feb. 23. The village hall will serve as the polling place and will be open as such from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Ford Motor Starts Production Of First Hard-Top Convertible

The Ford Motor Company, after five years of secret development, has released photographs of a finished revolutionary new type steel topped convertible car.

The first of this type, the hardtop model has a fully retractable steel top which slides automatically into the car's trunk at the touch of a button. The six passenger two door automobile is scheduled for production this month and will be sold by Ford dealers.

The operation is relatively simple. A button on the instrument panel automatically raises or lowers the steel top. The mechanism is operated by electric motors. When the driver touches the top button, electric locks are released in the trunk lid and it rises up and back out of the way. The locks are automatically released in the top, which swings up, back and down into the trunk. The trunk lid closes and locks itself. It takes only 40 seconds to convert the car from a hard top sedan to an open air vehicle.

To change it back again, the top button needs only to be moved in the opposite direction. The mechanism will operate only when the car's transmission is in neutral and the ignition key is turned to the "accessory" position with the engine stopped.

Roof Slides Into Trunk

The new model is three inches longer over all than the Fairlane. The extra length provides rear deck space for the car's flat streamlined roof which is literally swallowed in the trunk.

To permit nesting a full width, rigid steel top nearly 90 inches long into the trunk, the designers moved the spare tire under a floor plate in the rear deck and relocated the gas tank further forward in the deck. Baggage space is in the center area of the rear deck.

A special linkage extending to the front section of the roof makes the device workable. It permits the forward ten inches of the roof to wing back, shortening the total length to be stored in the deck.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority
Vacation In Mexico

If you're planning a winter vacation trip to Mexico, include your automobile in your plans. It's the perfect way to see this fascinating land. Before driving off:

1. Get a Mexican tourist card. You can get one from a Mexican Tourist Bureau (located in most large cities). They're $3.00 per person.

2. Take along a proof of citizenship. Your birth certificate will do.

3. Obtain a smallpox certificate from your doctor.

4. Make sure you have evidence of car ownership. If you're borrowing a car, get an affidavit from the owner stating that you have his permission to take the car into Mexico.

5. Check your car insurance to see if it covers Mexican travel. If it does not, you can buy such insurance at the Mexican border.

Once in Mexico, you might find these tips useful:

If you drive far from the larger cities, always carry an extra supply of gasoline.

Keep a raincoat and top coat handy. Sudden, brief storms are common, and nights can get delightfully cool.

Don't worry about getting lost. The majority of Mexican highways are well marked, in Spanish of course. (The Shell Touring Service offers free booklets and maps to help overcome the language barrier and to answer many other travel questions.)

For the best sightseeing in large cities, park your car and hire an official Mexican guide with a limousine. You'll see more, learn more, and relax more.

Buen Viaje!

Teenagers Ask No Quarter in Traffic Cases

(CNS) Student representatives of Oak Park, Proviso and Riverside Brookfield high schools backed a proposal that the courts treat teenagers the same as adults in traffic violation cases.

They were among representatives from 40 Chicago and suburban high schools who gave their ideas on how to combat juvenile delinquency at an all day conference Thursday in the County Building.

Family court now has jurisdiction over boys 16 to 17 and girls 16 to 18 in traffic and other cases.

Ralph Riley, chief administrative officer of Family Court, said a ruling by the state attorney general bars any change in procedure.

The meeting was part of Sheriff Lohman's Senior and Junior Advisory program.

The advisers also adopted a resolution introduced by Francis Sazama, 17, of 102 Lawton rd. Riverside, a senior at Riverside Brookfield high school. This was to sponsor a movie emphasizing good citizenship which he amended to include a series of 13 movies on juvenile delinquency prepared by Channel 11, the educational television station.

The movies would be made available to any group asking them.

Janice Ensign, 17, of 1444 Forest avenue, River Forest, represented Oak Park high school.

She wanted to know who was to pay for all the community youth centers almost everyone at the conference said they wanted.

The answer "and it won't cost any money," is parents, said Marshall Corns, 49, of 1625 Ridge Evanston, a management consultant and a Senior Council adviser in Lohman's youth program.

"You can get what you want," said Corns, "if six determined

Population Center, Like Old Man River, Keeps Moving Along

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University

On many diagrams, maps and pictures an 'X' marks the spot where something happened. Any one naturally assumes that such a spot once definitely located would not immediately go wandering. The spot being considered, however, is a migrant one and is an exception. It came to Southern Illinois in 1950 to mark the center of population for the United States.

In a way it tells where the people of the nation live. If an east-west line extending from coast to coast were drawn thru this center, there would be as many people living north as south of it. Likewise, if a north-south line were extended to the nation's borders, it would make an equal division of the eastern-western population. A glance at a map shows that this would allow many persons to become southerners or westerners, colonels or cowboys.

This center is calculated after each decennial census. It was first located after the census of 1790 at a point 23 miles east of Baltimore. From this first location it began an erratic rate of westward movement, following closely along the thirty ninth parallel. It was farthest north when first established and farthest south in 1940. The extent of its north south wandering has been small, only about 22.5 miles.

In 1950, after 160 years of westward progress, this migrating point reached a place in a cornfield beside Illinois Highway 130 about eight miles north of Olney in Richland county. An appropriate and substantial marker that attracts the attention of passersby was erected to indicate its chosen place and a drive out for cars was arranged. Many travellers, seeing the marker as they pass along the highway, draw off the pavement and pause for a while to read the inscribed legends and to feel that they are really in the very heart of our nation.

This westward progress of the center has not been at any regular rate. It was greatest in the period from 1870 to 1880, when a record distance of 57.4 miles was made. The least mileage was made in the decade from 1910 to 1920, when it was only 9.8, an average annual progress of less than one mile a year. In the 160 years since it began its westward meanderings, its average annual advance has been slightly more than four miles.

Since the national census on which its location is based is taken only at 10 year intervals, the center is marked accordingly. In 1800, 10 years after it was found to be 23 miles east of Baltimore, it appeared 18 miles west of that town. Another 10 years and it was 40 miles west of Washington, D. C. By 1840 it had reached a location 16 miles south of Clarksburg, then in Virginia, but now in West Virginia.

In 1870 it was 48 miles east by north from Cincinnati and evidently spent a part of the next decade wandering unnoted thru that city to appear eight miles west by south from there in 1880. In 1890 it made its first appearance in Indiana, choosing a point 20 miles east of Columbus. Evidently liking that state it loitered across it for 60 years before appearing in the Richland county, Illinois, cornfield.

With only one recorded exception, this center appears to have chosen rural and often isolated spots for its appearance. This one exception occurred in 1910 when it settled down in the city of Bloomington, Ind., choosing a coal yard in which to locate.

The present—that is, today's—actual center of population is not known. Those who have studied its movements over the years appear agreed that it is now wandering somewhere west from the latest marker, but none hazard a guess as to just how far it has moved. Many are reluctant to predict its north-south progress.

As people are born, die or change their place of residence across the lines drawn through the present center, the center moves accordingly. When the next national census is taken in 1960, the center will appear in a new location. Then, even before the engineers, mathematicians, and others have made their calculations and reached the spot, it will have moved away.

It truly may be said to be like the Irishman's flea—"When you put your finger on it, it isn't there."

Students of population trends predict that the center will continue a slow progress westward in Illinois. Many think that it will be many decades before it leaves the state, if it ever does. If it should decide permanently to locate in Illinois, why not move the national capital here where it would be equally accessible to the most people? We'll vote for the move.

There are many other "centers" in the United States, most of which are like that of the center of population in that they are always moving about, for they have a habit of doing so. There is one center, however, that very definitely stays on location. This is the geographical center of the continental United States. It is located about three miles northwest of the small town of Lebanon in Smith county near the midpoint of the northern border of Kansas. It is about 50 miles north of an east-west line through the population center. If the productive farmlands and other natural resources of the nation were evenly distributed, perhaps the population center would eventually come to settle in that same vicinity.

With the center of population now located within it, southern Illinois can at least partially justify its claim, "Here is the heart of America."

FEDERAL AID FOR SCHOOLS MARCHES ON

Today congress is being urged to provide federal aid for public schools—both elementary and secondary schools. Tomorrow, it will be federal aid for colleges and universities; in fact, that movement has already started. Both major political parties went on record in support of the principle of federal aid for public schools. The drive for federal aid is being sparked by President Eisenhower; the power behind the drive is being furnished by certain profession organizations, college and university heads, "Big Government minded laymen, the N.E.A., and various state education associations.

The drive will be difficult to stop. Senator Lausche of Ohio says, "Federal aid is invariably followed by federal control." The writer is in full agreement with Senator Lausche. Federal control follows federal aid as inevitably as night follows day.

For example: In 1916 Congress passed the Smith-Hughes Act providing federal financial aid for local vocational educational systems. Prior to passage, its proponents insisted vigorously and incessantly that it would involve no federal control. However, federal regulations in connection with the act have been expanded over the years until they now fill a 108-page book, "Administration of Vocational Education," published by the government printing office. One sentence on page 4, however, is all that is necessary to quote: "Each state is required to submit a plan which must meet with the approval of the Federal Office of Education."

No approval of plan, no money! What is that but federal control?

DEBUNKING FEDERAL AID

An authority on the subject of federal aid for school, Roger A. Freeman, the former research director for the intergovernmental relations commission, had this to say on the problem of federal aid for schools.

"Education for many years has been the largest item of public expenditure in the United States next to national defense. The cost of education accounts for about one-third of all state and local expenditures and is about twice as great as the next largest public function—highways. School funds have consistently risen faster than enrollment, or other public services, and are continuing to do so."

Mr. Freeman stated that federal money is not needed for schools when the facts are known even if the Gallup poll last year indicated that 68% of the persons questioned in the poll favored federal aid for the schools. He explained the results of the poll came about because "the opponents of Federal aid have let the controversy go by default." He calls for a nationwide movement to lay the facts before the American public to head off pending congressional action in favor of federal aid for schools.

The report of the intergovernmental commission on education stated: "We have been unable to find a state that cannot afford to make more money available to its schools or that is economically unable to support an adequate school system."

FEDERAL CONTROL OF EDUCATION

"In the Communist Manifesto Karl Marx made control of public education one of the ten commandments of communism. Crypto-communists, fellow-travelers, and left wing progressives in the field of education have kept their sights fixed upon this objective ever since. Twenty-five years ago a group of 'liberal' American educators, appointed by the American Historical Society and financed with more than a quarter of a million dollars from the Carnegie and other foundations, went into a long learned huddle and finally came out with a 15-volume report. In their findings they declared that our form of government was a failure and should give way to a collectivized society, wherein the individual should be made to surrender his liberty in the interest of group welfare. They determined that only the schools of the country could bring about this revolutionary change in our American system, and that it was the duty of every educator to see that the schools did so." —Dean Clarence Manion, "Let's Face It"

Going Concern

Lesson for February 3, 1957

A "GOING concern" is one that prospers, does business and keeps growing. If the Christian church is not a going concern, maybe the reason is that it is not a going concern. That remark needs explaining; it is not meant, as nonsense.

Concern?

The Quakers have a good word: Concern, which has a deeper meaning than "firm" or business. It means warm, deep, even self-sacrificing interest in some one or some group or cause. Lincoln had a concern for the Union; St. Paul had a concern for Gentiles; mothers have a concern for their children. Now the church, if it is the true Body of Christ, ought to share his concerns. We know what it was that concerned him—people, the "multitudes," the masses as we now speak of them. The church ought to have—and to be—a living concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

A church without the human, humane concern which Jesus had, is not what Christ intended.

Going?

Furthermore, the church, so far as it is Christian, ought to be a going concern, not only a sitting one—not only a praying one either. Plenty of churches are (so to speak) sitting concerns. The preacher preaches about "lost" people but nobody gets out to hunt for them—perhaps the preacher doesn't look very hard himself. The members talk to one another about the dreadful state of the world, but they do nothing about it. Missions? What's that? The fact that their denomination is actually going into the ends of the earth, and begs them for help, does not get through to their minds. (Maybe the preacher's fault again?) They have a concern for the sad state of the world, but it's not a going concern, only a talking concern, a tut-tutting concern—nothing alive. So the church dwindles and dies, it's not a going concern any longer because it isn't a going concern—it has no real concern, and it never goes anywhere.

No Mission, No Church

The first Christian church was the twelve apostles. It was a 100% going concern. Jesus did not plan for any of them to remain behind. The directions he gave them are not now followed by any missionary society that has much success; circumstances alter Christian strategy. But all the same, suppose those twelve men had preferred not to go when Jesus sent them? He chose them for two purposes, we read: to be with him and to be sent out. There are always Christians who enjoy worship better than service. Ten people will be out for church, to one who will come out for volunteer service, of any sort. But there came a time when Jesus had to say (in effect) to his closest friends: You have been with me enough. You have heard all you need to hear, learned all you need to learn—for now. Go out now and change people, change the world, in my name! If they had refused, if Jesus could have found no one willing to go, there never would have been a Christian church. And if the church ceases to be missionary today it will become a fossil, a relic, a curiosity, without life or usefulness.

"I Wouldn't Be Here if..."

Not everybody can become a foreign missionary. (Indeed the Twelve were sent out first to a region smaller than Vermont; their home country.) But there are various ways in which the church can go out, and send out. There is a man who has found his life's chief work and interest in developing the moral and spiritual atmosphere of the schools in his state. He said not long ago to a group of religious workers: "I wouldn't be here if my church didn't feed me." What he is doing is outside the church; he works through public agencies of the State. But his inspiration comes from the church. And his church would not have inspired him and "fed" him if in turn it had not been inspired and fed by the Living Bread. Where the church as an organization cannot go, its members, stirred and supported by the Spirit of God, must go, into life everywhere, in the name of Jesus.

ALPINE

Mrs. E. Mrosek
Fieldbrook 9-2841

Cub Scouts, den 5 of pack 218 held their weekly meeting Thursday in the John Cruise home. Members continued their project of making place cards for the Blue and Gold banquet which will be held in the American Legion hall in Orland Park, Feb. 2 at 6:30.

Den 5 reported selling 8 cases of popcorn. Members are very happy over the wonderful response given their fund raising project.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cole Jr. entertained 18 youngsters at a party honoring their daughter Linda Lee, and her 6th birthday, Saturday afternoon. Cake, popcorn, candy and ice cream were served at the party table and each guest received a gift. Pin the tail on the donkey and dropping clothes pins in a bottle were played and the winners were given prizes. Linda received many nice gifts of clothes and toys.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Culp are proudly announcing the birth of a son to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slansky of Worth Jan. 22 in Little Company of Mary hospital, Evergreen Park. The infant weighed 8 pounds, 2 ounces and has been named Terry Lee. Little Terry has a sister, Sharon, who is five, and a brother Charles, who is two and one half years old. The Slanskies are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Culp.

A meeting of the southwestern area, District 19 Council of the Parent Teachers association was held at Maue school, Tuesday evening, Jan. 22. No business, however, was transacted, because due to weather conditions, there were not enough present to make a quorum.

At least 10 Alpine mothers will participate in the March of Dimes Thursday, Jan. 31. Because of other meetings scheduled for that evening some of the area within the district will be covered in late afternoon. Other mothers, because of the distance to be traveled in a rural area, will be out early until late. Alpine mothers will call at as many homes on 159th st. and south and east and west of route 45 in Orland township, as time will permit.

Laguna Woods

Mrs. Robert Anderson
Fieldbrook 9-2857

Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and son Billy have been residents of Laguna Woods since Jan. 20. The Bells are living in the home they built bordering the large lagoon and are neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cebold.

Game fans are invited to attend the Orland Park Little League benefit Feb. 14 at the Legion hall in Orland.

Two new Cub Scouts from the Woods are Mark and Norman Hegyi who were active in scouting in Lansing. The boys will be in Mrs. Yomans den 3 of Palos Highlands. Michael McBride who has just celebrated his eighth birthday is also looking forward to becoming a Cub Scout, when there is another opening. Mrs. Yoman has 10 boys in her den and would probably be glad of some help from the mothers of our Cubs of our community; if not as actual den mothers, then lending a helping hand at the meetings or having a meeting once in a while.

The Rod and Gun club of Palos Highlands sponsors game night on the last Friday of every month in the Legion hall in Orland Park with cash prizes award ed. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Ladies keep the evening of Feb. 18 open as the Orland Park Junior Woman's club is having a fashion show. A local store is showing its spring fashions and it is expected several of the young ladies of Laguna will be models. Your youngsters are cordially invited as there will be a magician show and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Paschall of Orland Hills has left tickets at the home of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Eckel for your convenience. The fashions will be shown in the auditorium of the Orland Park Elementary school.

The poorest time to purchase a cow is when she is springing or has just calved. This is because swelling of the udder which normally occurs at that time, makes it difficult, if not impossible to detect old, chronic mastitis lesions that may be present.

South Suburban Townships Show Increases in Realty Valuations

(CNS) Nine south suburban townships of Cook county showed a larger increase in both total real estate valuations and percentage increase over 1955 than the nine west suburban ones, according to the 1956 board of appeals assessment figures released Friday by County Assessor Frank Keenan. Both were behind the twelve north suburbs, however.

The south suburban townships accounted for $41,303,000 of the $158,165,000 increase in suburban valuations, the figures showed. Their increase was 10.6 per cent of the preceding year's assessment for the same townships, while the west suburbs only increased 4.5 per cent, amounting to $39,357,000.

All the Cook county suburbs increased 7.5 per cent, with a total assessment of $2,248,605,964 while the city of Chicago increased only 1.2 per cent, with a total of $5,098,972,057.

This is a reflection largely of new building, Assessor Keenan said. Indicating also the move to the suburbs, land valuation for the thirty suburban townships is up $7,202,162, while that in the city is down $4,051,962.

It can also be taken as an indication that individual tax bills will be lower in most of the suburbs, while those in the city are more likely to go up, aside from the effect on tax rates of changes in appropriations.

Among the south suburban townships, Thornton showed the largest increase in total amount, and the fourth largest in the county, with an increase of $12,760,000 or 10.3 per cent over 1955.

The largest percentage increase, however, was Palos township, with $2,570,000, or 17.2 per cent, to a 1956 assessment of $17,521,781, which was the fifth largest in the county. This means Palos residents are most likely to feel the effect of increased building in reducing local tax rates.

Similar good prospects exist for residents of Bremen township, which had an increase of $5,287,000 or 16.8 per cent, to a 1956 assessment of $36,714,767.

In a slightly lower category are Rich township, with an increase of $4,023,000, or 11.3 per cent; Worth, with $9,561,000, or 10.9 per cent, and Thornton with 10.3 per cent.

Total U. S. petroleum production in the past 10 years is valued at 62 billion dollars—about equal to the total value of all other minerals, metals, and fuels produced in the nation.

cago Heights; Elaine Elbers, Tinley Park; Dick Brown and Joe Mulderink, Blue Island; and Sharon Kohl, Matteson, carried on a very effective training school for officers of local clubs.

This type of training should improve local club meetings all over South Cook county.

The vegetable school was well attended in spite of the cold weather. Such subjects as chemical weed control, insect and disease control, vegetable varieties, market organizations, soils and fertilizers and seasonal labor were discussed by capable speakers.

Thanks to C. W. Paarlberg, South Holland, the groups enjoyed fine facilities and refreshments.

Vegetable growers desiring information about production and marketing their crops should contact my office.

Seed of three new oat varieties will be available to Illinois farmers in 1957.

Newton is a medium-season variety developed in Indiana. It matures about the same time as Clinton. It has a good yield record in northern and central Illinois and has excellent resistance to lodging.

Logan is a new variety developed at the University of Illinois. It matures two or three days earlier than Clinton and has a good yield record in central Illinois. It is resistant to race 8 of stem rust but is susceptible to race 7.

Garry is a variety developed in Canada and is recommended only for northern Illinois. It matures from 7 to 10 days later than Clinton and is resistant to both races 7 and 8 of stem rust and moderately resistant to leaf rust. It has been one of the highest yielding varieties at the experiment field in DeKalb county.

Seed of these new varieties will be available, but quantities may be limited.

If you can't get one of the new varieties, these older ones are still on the recommended list: Clarion, Clintland, Clinton (11 or 59), Nemaha, Sauk, and Waubay.

Limestone is still the most profitable material a farmer can buy and use on his land. This fact has not made any headlines recently due to much "hue and cry" about mixed fertilizers and nitrogen.

Farmers in this country are not "caught up" on need for limestone. A recent soil test on a farm in South Cook showed such strong acidity that 10 tons of lime per acre was necessary to correct the situation.

Illinois circular 721, a recent publication about limestone, is available free at my office. I will be glad to discuss the circular with you.

Wade Palmer, Chicago Heights was in the office today. He was recently released from the army. Wade was a very active 4-H member prior to his military service. He was interested to hear about recent 4-H activities. Most important, he offered his help in furthering 4-H work. This was not surprising. You get to expect these offerings from 4-H people. It is this spirit of service and cooperation that make the 4-H program strong.

Do you have a boy or girl between 10 and 21? 4-H club work offers many opportunities for these young people.

Farm landlords who rent out their farms, but "materially participate" in the operation of the farm can get social security coverage.

These facts came out of the recently held Social Security meeting.

For more information contact my office or the social security office in Harvey.

Insects, weeds and soil fertility. What effects do these three factors have on crop production on your farm?

A county meeting to discuss these topics will be held Feb. 6 at the Farm Bureau Building in Tinley Park. The meeting will start at 10 a.m. Lunch will be furnished. University of Illinois specialists will help with the discussion.

There are some very capable sugar beet growers in Cook county. The following farmers were the top seven producers for the Nenominee Sugar Company of Green Bay, Wisconsin.

- J. VanZuidam, Chicago Heights.
 - T. Verduin & Son, Chicago Heights.
 - J. DeGraff, Holland, Ill.
 - H. Anker, So. Holland, Ill.
 - G. Huizenga and Ruiter Bros., Chicago Heights.
 - Garret Schepel, Jr., Chicago Heights.
 - Ed VanZaten, South Holland.
- The top grower grew 23.6 tons per acre and these seven growers averaged 23.5 tons per acre. The average of the top 30 growers was 18 tons.

Don't forget the Soil Conservation District annual meeting, Feb. 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the First Reformed Church, South Holland, Ill.

The end of the year brings with it its share of annual meetings and reports.

I met with Bill Stelter, Tinley Park, Melvin Rohlwing, Matteson and Charles Fletcher to prepare the annual report for the Soil Conservation District. We reviewed the work of the past year and made note for improvement of next year's program. An effort will be made to retain the strong points of the program and strengthen the weaker points.

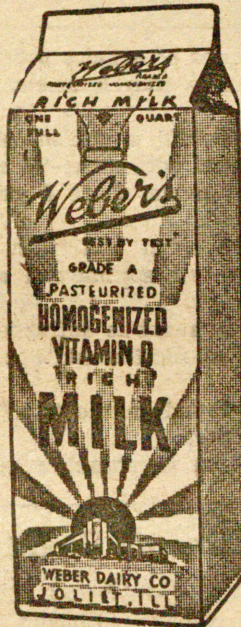

The annual meeting of the Soil Conservation district will be Feb. 14, 1957 at 6:30 p.m. at the First Reformed church in South Holland, Ill.

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles prepared by local clergy designed to produce greater church attendance between now and Easter.

There is deep meaning in the beautiful mysticism of Christ as expressed in his word of promise and adventure, "Where two or three are gathered together, in any name, there I am in the midst of them."

This means that as we worship in spirit and truth, and, in Christ's name, we are creative. We create a setting and a fellowship that has no equal.

Every person who worships exerts a subtle influence upon the whole; detrimental when hostile or indifferent, but benign when sympathetic and devoted.

There is always something to be found in the true worship of God. We need never to go away empty.

"The Answer Is God." Worship him in church regularly.

Thought for the Day

We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works. (Ephesians 2:10).

With reference to the word workmanship one translator points out that the word in Greek is poiema, meaning "poem", a thing made. In other words, we are God's handiwork, God's poems.

Words do not make poetry but poets do. Before God's Spirit can make poems out of us, we must be as ready to be put to use as the words in our language are. At the call of the poet, they leave their common, ordinary usage, and are transformed into the lovely beauty of a poem, "written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God."

The skylark, the village blacksmith, the marshes of Glynn—who would remember these but for the poems which immortalize them?

If we are to be worth anything in eternity, we must be pliable in God's hands as words are in the poet's. Our lives will be a mere jumble of words without rhyme or reason unless we submit ourselves into His hands. Only then will He arrange them.

PRAYER

Dear God, we thank Thee that we do not need to be self-made men, but that Thou Thyself dost desire to refashion us according to Thy will. We pray Thee to make plain Thy will for us, and grant that we may allow Thee to use us according to Thy will and purpose. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Am I letting God make a poem of me?

4-H Achievement

An Illinois girl and boy were named for one of the highest honors in 4-H Club work, the 1956 State Achievement award.

Susannah Alfredson

Eddie Lindskog

This distinction goes to Susannah Alfredson, 20, of Big Rock, and Eddie Lindskog, 17, of Prophetstown. Their 4-H records exemplify the best over-all accomplishment in 4-H project work, Club and community activities, according to the Extension Service of the University of Illinois.

Both received a certificate of merit, and Eddie attended the National 4-H Club Congress held recently in Chicago, as the guest of the Ford Motor Co., donor of the 4-H Achievement awards.

Chicago Water Price to Jump One-third May 1

(CNS) Water bills for Chicago users and 54 suburbs will go up 33 1/3 percent about May 1, says Water Commissioner James W. Jardine.

Chicago city council voted 33-12 Friday for the increase, the first since 1951 when rates were boosted 50 percent.

Suburbs buying Chicago water presumably will pass the rate hike along to their residents. Under law, Chicago must sell suburbs water at the same rate Chicagoans pay.

Reason for Chicago's delay in putting the new increase into effect is the big bookkeeping job involved. A new punch card and file system must be made for each customer.

The new rate will increase water department revenue an estimated $10 million annually.

Despite the hike, Chicago's water rate is second lowest to Cleveland among all big cities of the nation. Until now Chicago had the lowest rate.

Under the new rate, metered accounts will pay $1.60 per 10,000 gallons of water. By comparison, Evanston charges $2.73 and Gary Ind., $4.18 for the same amount. New York city charges $2.01.

Jardine said the increase was necessary to finance a $133 million expansion and improvement program in the next four years.

Chicago's water works is self supporting from revenue income. No tax funds have been used at any time to finance its operations or capital improvement construction program.

Ald. Alfred J. Cillela (36) introduced a resolution calling for enabling State legislation to permit Chicago to charge suburbs up to one third more for water than Chicago users pay. The council referred the matter to its judiciary committee.

Suburbs resell Chicago water for 300 to 500 percent more than they pay for it, Cillela complained. "This reduces suburban tax levies for public service at the expense of the citizens of Chicago," said Cillela.

South and southwest towns and villages facing higher water bills include:

Alsip, Bedford Park, Blue Island, Burnham, Calumet City, Calumet Park, Dixmoor, Dolton, and East Hazel Crest.

Also Evergreen Park, Harvey, Hazelcrest, Hometown, Markham and Merrionette Park.

Others, Midlothian, Oak Lawn, Phoenix, Posen, Riverdale, Robbins, South Holland and Summit.

The South Stickney Sanitary District also buys water from Chicago.

Zoning Board Hears of Life in Putty Factory

(CNS) For 10 years Arnold Sanche of Palos Park has been making putty in his South Side Chicago plant without a peep from his neighbors.

Now, they're up in arms over his place at 3247 South Emerald ave., and Sanche says he doesn't know why. Or, so he told the city zoning board of appeals Tuesday. He lives at 86th and 120th in the suburb.

Board members wanted to talk to him because of a petition signed by neighbors and also an unidentified priest.

Sanche says the priest is now on his side and so are most of the neighbors. It seems someone in the area is having domestic difficulties and they're taking it out on him, Sanche said.

Owner of the one story brick building where Sanche and two employees manufacture putty is Adolph Kaulakis, the zoning board was informed.

The building is zoned as a duplex residence district. So Sanche now has to get zoning board approval to operate there as a special use of the property. The case was taken under advisement.

"There's more here than meets the eye," said Samuel T. Lawton board chairman, referring to the petition.

"What's the story?"

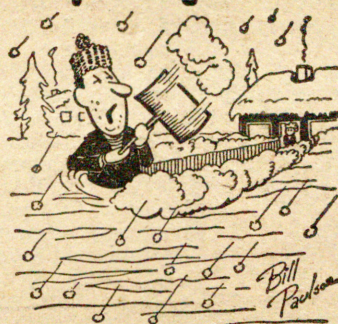

"Well," said Sancho, "somebody started a rumor that I was expanding. That's not true."

"I get along with the neighbors. Why, they even use our garbage cans and we never complain."

He then mentioned that someone in the neighborhood was having trouble at home and perhaps was taking it out on him indirectly.

The board didn't press for more details, seemed satisfied with the explanation.

CHANGE WALKING HABITS

Winter walking habits need to be changed for safety just as driving habits do, says the Illinois Division of Traffic Safety. We are not as surefooted as we are in summer. We can't get out of the way as fast when streets are slippery and we have to allow more room for the driver to stop or avoid us. It's a good thing at intersections to wait until the approaching cars have stopped completely before venturing into the street.
